

Bachelor of Business Administration (BBA)

Specialization in Management

OVERVIEW

Today's fast-paced, ever-changing business environment requires professionals to have a firm grasp of the models, strategies and theories driving economies. AIU® offers an industry-relevant BBA program with a specialization in Management to help students develop a solid foundation in business fundamentals while giving them an opportunity to learn about organizational change, the role of managers and cultural differences found in the management environment.

COURSEWORK

CURRICULUM INCLUDES

In this specialized curriculum, students have an opportunity to examine the many responsibilities of a manager or supervisor, which include leading their teams and providing the motivation and skills to achieve organizational goals.

This real-world specialization offers the opportunity for in-depth study, with more than half of the courses in your field of interest. It can help you develop a focused industry-specific knowledge base common to management professionals in the business world. For example:

In Diversity in the Workforce: students study the experience of work as it varies with gender and ethnic background and examine the relationship of diversity to processes such as supervision, leadership, mentoring and power.

In Personnel and Organization Policy: students examine the personnel policies that must be in place in order to select and implement human resources programs within an organization. This course covers basic aspects of policy writing for employee selection, performance management, disciplinary process, employee motivation and career management.

In Managing Organizational Change: students examine the conceptual and experiential approaches to the topic of organizational change and organizational development. Special emphasis is placed on developing interpersonal skills in order to analyze situations.
